Waiver & Regulations

- Country Critter Sitters will require a meeting with the animal(s) that are to be placed in our care prior to agreeing to provide such care. We reserve the right to decline to provide services if it is our finding that the animal(s) are not suited to our care.
- Country Critter Sitters will provide animals with due reasonable care, but it is mutually agreed that we do so without liability on our part for any accidental loss, escape, illness or death of any animal(s).
- If an animal becomes ill and it is our determination that immediate steps are necessary, we will take whatever action is deemed necessary including administering care ourselves or calling upon the services of a veterinarian.
- Any veterinary expenses shall be borne by the owner of the animal(s) including extra expenses incurred in the special care of the animal.
- Country Critter Sitters reserves the right to contact the owner or his/her agent, and terminate the stay of any animal(s) on our premises, if we find the animal(s) to be hostile, unmanageable or creates an unusual disturbance or nuisance. The owner or their agent will be required to remove the animal(s) with 24 hours or the animal will be placed in veterinary hospital for care until the owner or agent can arrange pick up.
- In the case of a death of an animal in our care, a postmortem examination will be performed to determine the cause of death. The cost of the postmortem will be borne by the animal's owner.
- All accounts are to be paid in full to Country Critter Sitters prior to the removal of the animal(s) from the premises. Animals are to be picked up by 1:00 pm or another day's care will be charged.
- If the animal is not picked up by the owner or their agent by the date specified and no communication is received from the owner or agent, the animal(s) may be disposed of at Country Critter Sitters discretion five days after sending the owner a registered written notice to the home address provided by the owner
- All animals left in our care must have their annual vaccinations up to date and certificates should be presented or we reserve the right to verify the vaccination status with the pet's regular veterinarian
- The owner attests that they have vaccinated their pet against Rabies, Parvovirus, Distemper and Bordetella and agrees that they will not now or at any time in the future hold Mary Taplin, Cathy Taplin or Country Critter Sitters responsible should the animal develop one of these diseases
- By signing this I agree to all of the above regulations and acknowledge that they will be in effect for any future care provided to my animal(s).
